GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS :

Variety SHOW, a tribute to the hit TV show, "GLEE" is here!!! Show will take place Thursday and Friday night in our very own GHS AUDITORIUM!!! Come watch the GHS football players dance, the GHS administration dance with the stars, Dr. Scott Anderle RAP, and so much more! The night will be full of singing and dancing and talent by all GHS student groups! Tickets are 9 dollars and can be purchased by the student store or any cast member. Tickets are also available at the door. We will see you this week at the 10th anniversary of the GHS variety show~!

Do you want to do something generous this holiday season? If so, you can be a part of the annual Toy Drive sponsored by Key Club, which will take place during the first two weeks of December. All toy donations will go to underprivileged elementary school students. There will be boxes in the student centers and in room J385 where you can leave new and unwrapped toys for any age group from kindergarten to sixth grade.

Do you speak more than one language? Here's a chance for you to show off your language skills. All 11th & 12th graders that are bilingual in Armenian, Korean, Spanish, Russian or Tagalog, are invited to sign up for an opportunity to take the test to receive the 2010 Bilingual Competency Award and a special seal on your high school diploma. Come over to J"191", the Categorical office, and sign up for the test today. DEADLINE to sign up for the exam is December 14th, so hurry and sign up today!

All 9th, 10th, and 11th graders who bought their yearbook pictures, they are in room E156, by the football field. Please pick them up at snack or lunch.

Junior Night in the library: all juniors and their parents are invited to the GHS Library on Dec. 16th at 6:30-8:00 to hear important information about graduation and life after high school.

Attention juniors, seniors and all students sixteen years of age and older. The ROP Spring Class Schedule is now available. Enrolling in an ROP class can help you learn a job skill, advance your career goals, obtain work experience or on-the-job training, prepare for advance career training and earn high school credit. To enroll and to get a copy of the schedule come to room B108.

On 12/14/2009 the class of 2011 will be having a fundraiser at Islands Restaurant in Glendale. The address is 117 West Broadway. It's from 5 to 9 pm and everyone needs a flyer. You can pick up your Islands flyer in room E250 with Mr. Funaro or from any Junior Class representative.

Seniors:

Seniors enrolling in Cal. State University, Long Beach – Get information on the "President's Scholars Program" in room B 108.

Attention Seniors– Wonderful resource online at www.collegeweeklive.com for special promotions, scholarships and hot tips.

Seniors: Cal State East Bay has extended its application deadline to Dec. 18th. East Bay is located in Northern CA; their Hayward campus offers spectacular views and easy access to San Francisco. If you applied to CSU San Francisco, it's not too late to look into Cal State East Bay as an alternative. There is a huge variety of majors and they are renowned in all. For more information go to CSU Mentor and learn more about this school.

If you are a senior with period 6 free, the 8th grade AVID program at Wilson needs some additional tutors. You can earn community service hours, even make yourself more employable. See Mrs. Ciotti in bungalow 23 for the information.

Seniors applying to UCLA: The UCLA Alumni Association scholarships applications (Freshman & Bunche) are now available. The deadline is Wednesday, February 17th. Check the website <https://www.uclalumni.net/Scholarships/Register/home.cfm>.

Know a bright child who needs a challenge to reach their full potential? A student who tops out on all school standardized exams? Have them take the ACT (American College Test) to gain a better measure of their academic abilities and to see if college courses may be the answer to their challenge needs!

The SEAA Talent Search ACT was designed to address the special needs of highly gifted youth by providing a better assessment of their scholastic strengths and weaknesses by taking a very difficult exam. The exam also may tell us if your child is ready for summer or even year-round classes at CSULA with other students aged 11-15. CSULA has Search for Exceptional Academic Achievement (SEAA Talent Search) for 25 years; thousands of gifted children have been assisted and many more have taken classes at CSULA. The upcoming test date is Sunday, December 6, 2009.

Visit the website for more information. Look for "application process" section for the ACT application and mail today <http://www.calstatela.edu/academic/eep/>
